ilek^otro™

Freestanding electric fire

With the versatility to be placed almost anywhere in the home, the portable ilek^otro Freestanding is the flexible option for virtually any living space.

The ilek^otro Freestanding's realistic flame, glowing logs and flickering embers are viewable from all angles through its three curved glass panels.

For those looking to achieve a realistic wood fire aesthetic, the ilek^otro Freestanding can be installed with a powder-coated black flue.

Plug-and-play installation and simple front-facing controls make the ilek^otro Freestanding the perfect fit for any home.
